ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

NOTICE.

IN THE MATTER OF THE SPECIAL SURVEYS ACT, 1899, AND AMENDING ACTS, AND IN THE MATTER OF THE SPECIAL SURVEY OF LOT 264 "A," GROUP (1), NEW WESTMINSTER DISTRICT.

WHEREAS in pursuance of a request made to the Honourable Charles Wilson, then Attorney-General of the Province of British Columbia, in the month of May, 1905, by the City of Vancouver, and in the exercise of the power conferred upon him by the Special Surveys Act, 1899, and Amending Acts, it was directed by the said Attorney-General that a special survey be made of Lot 264 "A," Group (1), New Westminster District, situate within said City of Vancouver, for the purpose of correcting errors, or supposed errors, in respect to the existing survey and plan thereof, and of correcting and adjusting any discrepancy between the occupation of the said land and the registered plan or plans of same, and that such special survey being made a plan be prepared on the principle of a block outline survey, or a completed survey, either in whole or in part:

And whereas it was further directed that subject to the provisions of the said Act, and amending Acts, the cost of such survey and other expenses connected therewith should in respect of the area of land contained in the streets and lanes be charged against the said city, and in respect of the lots or land should be taxed against the owners thereof in direct proportion to their respective areas contained within the limits of the survey; and that the proportion of costs taxed against the lots or land when determined should be assessed proportionately against the lots or lands so affected, and should become a lien thereon, to be collected in the same manner as other taxes:

And whereas said special survey and plan have been made under the guidance of, and instructions from, the District Registrar of the Vancouver Land Registration District in which the said lands are situate:

And whereas the field-notes of said survey and said plan, together with a statement of the costs incurred by such survey, and in what proportion they are to be taxed against the said city, and against the lands affected by such survey and plan, have been filed with the Provincial Secretary to be submitted for the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council:

Notice is therefore hereby given that I fix Monday, the 11th day of August, 1907, at the hour of 11 a.m., at my office in the Government Buildings at Victoria, for the hearing by me of any complaints that may be made against such special survey, plan and statement, the objects of which have been above set out, by any persons interested in the property thereby affected.

*Dated this 24th day of July, 1907.

W. J. BOWSER,
Attorney-General.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
25th July, 1907.

HIS HONOUR the Administrator in Council directs that under the powers conferred by section 4 of the "Bush Fire Act Amendment Act, 1907," the following regulations governing the operation of donkey engines in logging camps be made.

By Command.

HENRY ESSON YOUNG,
Provincial Secretary.

Any person or persons using or operating a donkey engine in connection with logging operations shall see that all brush and inflammable matter is removed for a space of not less than fifty (50) feet on all sides thereof:

There shall be available at each donkey engine in use during the dry season a supply of water of not less than four hundred (400) gallons, such amount to be obtainable at all times therein; together with twelve (12) large galvanised iron buckets to be kept exclusively for fire protection purposes, and in a convenient position therefor:

There shall also be available and kept solely for fire protection purposes six (6) good shovels and three (3) good mattocks, and located in a suitable position therefor:

In addition to the above, there shall be available at such donkey engine a suitable hand pump to be maintained in good working order, and in readiness for an emergency:

It shall be the duty of the owner or operator of each donkey engine to maintain a watchman in the vicinity thereof during such time as the same is under fire and there is any possibility of fire spreading from such engine:

A spark arrester shall be placed on the top of the smoke stack of each donkey engine. The arrester shall be constructed with a good strong steel or iron frame firmly fastened to the top of the stack. The ribs shall be close enough together to prevent the wire from falling in or collapsing. The cover of the arrester shall be woven wire of a dimension of not less than Number 16 B. W. G., having twenty-five squares to the square inch in mesh. The top of the arrester to be not less than three times the area of the top of the smoke stack, and at least eighteen inches above the top thereof.

FRED. J. FULTON,
Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works.

[Amended Certificate.]

PART IV.

"WATER CLAUSES CONSOLIDATION ACT, 1897."

1. THIS is to certify that "The Cranbrook Electric Light Company, Limited," a company duly incorporated under the provisions of the "Companies Act, 1897," and which has been registered under the "Power Companies' Relief Act, 1902," for the purpose of exercising the rights, powers, privileges and priorities in and by part IV. of the said Act created, granted and conferred, has submitted its undertaking to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for approval, and that the said undertaking, as shown by the documents and plans filed, has been approved, and that the same is as follows:—

The erection of a dam across the St. Mary's River in a rocky canyon about one mile above the railway bridge upon which the Canadian Pacific Railway crosses the St. Mary's River, as shown on the plans filed and marked "B"; the erection of a Power-house to be situated at or close to the dam, the water under a 30' head passing through turbine water-wheels in the Power-house, thence through the tail-race into the river again; the erection of all necessary pole lines. The power will be utilised to supply light, heat and power chiefly to the city of Cranbrook and the inhabitants thereof, to operate railways, tramways, saw-mills and other industries of any nature or kind, and to consumers generally of light, heat or power in the Fort Steele Mining Division of East Kootenay.

Eight thousand miner's inches of water are to be presently taken from St. Mary's River, in East Kootenay District; five thousand miner's inches of the said eight thousand miner's inches so to be presently taken stand already recorded in the name of the Company, which record is hereby approved and confirmed, and the intended application of the Company for a further record of three thousand miner's inches, and of such further records not exceeding thirty thousand inches, from and out of the said St. Mary's River, according to the requirements of its business and the extensions to be subsequently undertaken, is approved; provided that such approval shall not be construed as giving the Company any absolute right to such records when applied for.

2. And this is further to certify that the Company proposes to commence its undertaking by the construction of a dam across the St. Mary's River and the necessary excavations and gradings, and by the construction of a Power-house at the site of the dam, and by the erection of poles and stringing of copper or other wires thereon, for the purpose of conveying the electrical energy created by water-wheels at said dam to the City of Cranbrook and its vicinity and intervening points.

3. And this is further to certify that "The Cranbrook Electric Light Company, Limited," shall have duly subscribed, before it commences the construction of its undertaking and work, or exercises any of the powers in that behalf conferred by the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act," 1897," Part IV., five thousand (5,000) shares of one dollar ($1.00) each. The further amount of capital required to fully complete the undertaking and work to be provided by the issue of first mortgage bonds or debentures of "The Cranbrook Electric Light Company, Limited," to be issued from time to time, or all at the same time, to an amount not exceeding in the whole one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

4. And this is further to certify that the time within which the said capital, viz., five thousand dollars, is to be subscribed is fixed at one year from the date hereof, and that the time within which the said undertaking and works are to be commenced is fixed at one year from the date hereof, and the date by which all the proposed works shall be in operation is two years from the date hereof.

Dated this 2nd day of May, A.D. 1907.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Sechelt Brick and Tile, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into one thousand five hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 30th day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To enter into and carry into effect, with or without modification, a certain agreement which has been prepared and is expressed to be made between Canadian Financiers, Limited, of the one part, and Bernard Donnelly, on behalf of the Company, of the other part, and is to be signed immediately after the incorporation of the Company:

(b.) To carry on the business of manufacturing, selling, trading and dealing in brick and all products of clay, sewer and water pipe, tiling and roof tiling, hollow building blocks, terra-cotta, vitrified brick, fire brick, Portland cement, sand-stone and any other building materials:

(c.) To erect, construct, equip, operate and maintain tramways, telephone and telegraph lines in connection with the works of the Company, and mills, factories, buildings, works, plant, rolling stock, machinery or appliances of every description necessary or convenient for any of the purposes of the Company:

(d.) To purchase, build, own, charter, use, rent, acquire, and to let or hire steamers, sailing vessels, tugs, barges, boats and other craft for the purpose of transporting, carrying or towing passengers, merchandise, goods, timber, logs or other ships or vessels:

(e.) To take over or acquire, whether by purchase or otherwise, the business, stock-in-trade, buildings, real estate and other assets whatsoever of any company, firm, individual or individuals engaged in the same or similar business, and to pay for such business, stock-in-trade, buildings, real estate and other assets whatsoever in cash, notes, bonds, stock, shares, debentures or securities of the Company:

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, any patent or patent rights containing any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, which may seem calculated to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, and to use, exercise, develop and turn to account the property or rights so acquired:

(g.) To borrow money or raise same by mortgage or by the issue of or upon bonds, debentures, bills of exchange, promissory notes or other obligations or securities of the Company, or to mortgage or pledge all or any of the Company's real or personal estate, assets or uncalled-for capital for the purpose of securing such debentures or bonds, and such debentures or bonds, and such mortgage or mortgages may be in favour of any person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations, trustee or trustees:

(h.) To carry on any other business which may seem to this Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of this Company's property or rights for the time being:

(i.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, for services rendered, goods or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any other valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined:

(j.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking, lands, property, estate, chattels and effects of this Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as this Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(k.) To purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real and personal property, or any rights or privileges which this Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business:

(l.) To amalgamate with any other company now or hereafter incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(m.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue and deal with and in promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(n.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of this Company:

(o.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(p.) To procure this Company to be registered, licensed or recognised in any province or territory in the Dominion of Canada, or in any Province, country or place:

(q.) To acquire by purchase, record or otherwise, water powers, water records and water privileges, and develop and turn same to account, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay and maintain dam, aqueducts, flumes, ditches or other conduit pipes, and to utilise, sell, or otherwise dispose of the power and energy:

(r.) To do all such other acts as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence or other executive or legislative authority: and

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated :—

(a.) To lend money upon such terms as are deemed expedient, with power to take security for the same or any other indebtedness owing to the Company, upon freehold or leasehold real estate, ground rents, Dominion, Provincial, British, foreign or other public securities, or upon the stock, shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any government or any municipal or school corporation, or of any chartered bank or incorporated company, or upon goods warehoused or pledged with the Company, or upon such other securities or guarantees as are deemed expedient, and to acquire, by purchase or otherwise, any of the aforesaid property or assets which may have been pledged with the Company as security for such loan or indebtedness, and to re-sell the same :

(b.) To take personal security as collateral for any advance made or to be made or contracted to be made by, or for any debt due to, the Company :

(c.) To act as an agency association for the interest and on behalf of others who entrust it with money for loan or investment, and, either in the name of the Company or of such others, to lend and advance money to any person or municipal or other corporation, or any board, or body, or trustees, or commissioners, upon such securities as are mentioned in clause (a) hereof, and to purchase or otherwise acquire any securities on which it is authorised to advance money, and again re-sell the same :

(2.) The conditions and terms of such loans and advances, and of such purchases and re-sales, may be enforced by the Company for its benefit, and for the benefit of the person or corporation for whom such money has been lent and advanced, or such purchase and re-sale made ; and the Company shall have the same power in respect of such loans, advances, purchases and sales as are conferred upon it in respect of loans, advances, purchases and sales made from its own capital :

(3.) The Company may guarantee the repayment of the principal or the interest, or both, of any moneys entrusted to the Company for investment :

(d.) Subject to any limitation or prohibition imposed by the Company's Articles of Association or by By-laws, to lend money upon the shares, stock, bonds or debentures of the Company :

(e.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, or both, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments, and to buy up and cancel the same or any portion thereof from time to time :

(f.) To sell, pledge or mortgage any mortgage or other security or any other real or personal property held by the Company from time to time, and to make and execute all requisite conveyances and assurances in respect thereof :

(g.) To increase or decrease the amount of the capital stock of the Company from time to time as required, and to divide the shares in the capital for the time being into several classes and to attach thereto respectively any preferential, deferred, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions :

(2.) From time to time to subdivide all or part of the existing share capital of the Company into shares having a par value less than the par value of the shares then existing :

(h.) To set aside from time to time out of the profits of the Company such sum or sums as may be thought expedient as a reserve fund to meet contingencies, or for equalising dividends, or for repairing, improving and maintaining any of the property of the Company, and for such other purposes as may be deemed conducive to the interests of the Company, and to invest the several sums so set aside, and from time to time to deal with and vary such investments and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company, and to divide the reserve fund into special funds, and to employ the assets constituting the reserve fund in the business of the Company, and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets :

(i.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities, and the name and good-will of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on :

(j.) To amalgamate with any other company having powers wholly or in part similar to the powers of this Company, upon receiving the assent of two-thirds in interest of the shareholders of this Company :

(k.) To liquidate and carry on for the purposes of such liquidation, the business of any other person, company or companies carrying on any business which the Company is authorised to carry on, upon such terms as may be agreed upon :

(l.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(m.) To promote, or assist in promoting any other company, and for such purpose to subscribe for, buy and sell debentures, mortgage debentures, and such security of any such other company, and otherwise to employ the money or credit of the Company in any manner deemed expedient for any such purposes ; and to act as agents for the purpose of collecting and converting into money such securities and properties pledged, and to close and wind-up the business of estates, persons, partnerships, associations or corporate bodies, and to do such incidental acts and things as are necessary for such purposes :

(n.) To buy, sell, invest in the stock, bonds, debentures or obligations of municipal or other corporations, whether in stocks or secured by mortgage or otherwise, or in Dominion, Provincial, British, foreign or other public securities :

(o.) To purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to dispose of the same or any part thereof :

(p.) To acquire, hold, alienate, convey, mortgage and hypothecate any real estate for its own use, accommodation or by way of security or investment :

(q.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account and otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stock or obligations of any other company, corporation or association :

(r.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie :

(s.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants and contracts necessary to carry out the purposes of the said Company, and to promote the objects and business of the said Company :

(t.) For every or any of the above purposes herein mentioned, to lay out and employ the capital and property, for the time being, of the Company, or any part of the moneys authorised to be raised by the Company in addition to its capital for the time being, or any moneys so entrusted to it as aforesaid, and to do, assent to and exercise all acts whatsoever which may be deemed requisite or expedient to be done in regard thereto:

(u.) To remunerate, by the issue of paid-up shares or otherwise, any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(v.) To guarantee any investments made by the Company as agents or otherwise:

(w.) And for all such services, duties and trust to charge, collect and receive all proper remunerations, legal, usual and customary costs, charges and expenses:

(z.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the exercise of the above powers or any of them. aul

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Terminal Lumber & Shingle Co., Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a limited company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of ten dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 26th day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:

(1.) To acquire and take over any Lumber Company, or concern, or logging business, carried on at the City of Vancouver, or elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia, or Dominion of Canada, together with the good-will, assets, stock-in-trade, credits, effects, and all other real and personal property of the said concern:

(2.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia, and throughout the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere, business as timber merchants, saw-mill proprietors, and lumbermen in any and all of its branches, and to buy, sell, log, prepare for market, manipulate, export, and deal in saw-logs, timber, lumber and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds, in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used or forms a component part; and to carry on the business of general merchants, wholesale and retail, and establish shops, stores and hotels, and to purchase and vend general merchandise or liquors; to build, acquire, possess and operate logging camps, factories, shingle-mills and saw-mills, and machinery of all kinds, and to purchase, sell, lease and deal in land, timber berths, timber claims, timber land and leases:

(3.) To acquire, hold, charter, operate, alienate, convey, repair, alter and build steamers and steam tugs, barges or other vessels, or any interests or shares therein, and to let out to hire or charter the same:

(4.) To carry passengers and goods in any of the said ships or boats between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect moneys for fares and freight for the carriage of such passengers and goods, and the doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company:

(5.) To generate, accumulate, distribute and supply electricity for heat, light and power in connection with this Company's works and operations, and to dispose of electricity for profit for public or private purposes, and to deal generally in electric appliances:

(6.) To carry on any other business which may seem to this Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of this Company's property or rights for the time being:

(7.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(8.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-partnership, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to guarantee the bonds or contracts, or otherwise assist, any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, or otherwise deal with the same:

(9.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking, lands, property, estate, chattels and effects of this Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as this Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(10.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(11.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, any timber lands and other lands in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber lands by lease, licence or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber and other trees, and generally any real and personal property, and any rights or privileges which this Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(12.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by the Company as hereinbefore stated, either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such fully paid-up shares:

(13.) To amalgamate with any other company now or hereafter incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(14.) To construct, acquire, improve, maintain, equip, alter, work, operate, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, marine railways, water-powers, reservoirs, dams, aqueducts, canals, sluices, flumes, mines, tramways, logging railways operated by steam, electricity or other mechanical power, telephone lines, electric supply lines, bridges, foreshore rights, water privileges, docks, piers, wharves, booms, timber slides, booming grounds, manufactories, warehouses, hydraulic works, electric works, houses, shops, hotels, stores, buildings and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance this Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidise, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though undertaken, constructed or maintained by any other person or company:

(15.) To divert, take and carry away water from any stream, river and lake in British Columbia or elsewhere for the use of their business, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(16.) To conduct, maintain and operate booms, wharves and piers for the purpose of storing, shipping and transportation, to receive lumber and goods as boom-keepers, wharfingers, warehousemen and carriers:

(17.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(18.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location or otherwise, and hold coal lands, mineral claims, mineral leases, coal mines, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights, water records and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, and to work, develop, operate and turn the same to account, and to sell, lease, sub-let, contract for treatment of the products of or otherwise dispose of the same, or any of them, or any interest therein:

(19.) To borrow, receive on deposit, or raise, or secure payment of money in such manner and form as this Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, present or future, or both, including uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(20.) To increase the capital stock of the said Company, and to create and issue any part of the capital as preferred shares, giving the same such preference and priority as respects dividends, and otherwise over ordinary shares as may be provided in the by-laws of the Company, or otherwise determined :

(21.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in other companies having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company :

(22.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments :

(23.) To obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling this Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of this Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice this Company's interests :

(24.) (f.) To acquire, hold, charter, operate, alienate, convey and build steamers and steam tugs, barges or other vessels, or any interests or shares therein, requisite for the purpose of the Company's operations, and to let out to hire or charter the same :

(g.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company's property or rights for the time being :

(h.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, any timber lands and other lands in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber limits by lease, licence or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and generally to acquire any real or personal property, and notwithstanding any director or directors, shareholder or shareholders of the Company is or are interested therein, respectively ; and to pay for the same respectively, either in cash or in debentures or in shares of the Company, or partly in one mode and partly in the other :

(i.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, and which is suitable for the purposes of this Company :

(j.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking, lands, property, estate, chattels and effects of this Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as this Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company :

(l.) To amalgamate with any other company, now or hereafter incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(m.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, any patent or patent rights, containing any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited rights to use, which may seem calculated to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, and to use, exercise, develop, and turn to account the property or rights so acquired :

(n.) To borrow, or raise, or secure payment of money in such manner and form as this Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures or debenture stock charged upon any or all of the Company's property, present or future, or both :

(o.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments :

(p.) To act as factors or agents in relation to the purchase, sale, receipt and disposition of all kinds of timber, logs, lumber, pulp, paper or other articles in the manufacture of which wood or timber is used or forms a component part :

(q.) To obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling this Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modifications of this Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice this Company's interests :

(r.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation and registration of the Company, or in or about the promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business :

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of this Company :

(t.) To distribute any of the property of this Company among the members in specie :

(u.) To procure this Company to be registered, licensed or recognised in any Province or Territory in the Dominion of Canada, or in any Province, County or place :

(v.) To do all such other acts as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority.

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in no wise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph, or the name of the Company. jy25

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Wood-McNab Lumber Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into five thousand shares of ten dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 17th day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire from Rowland W. Wood and Charles D. McNab the right to cut and manufacture timber on the lands described in a certain agreement, dated the 1st day of June, 1907, and made between the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company, Limited, of the one part, and the said Rowland W. Wood and Charles D. McNab of the other part, and to pay for the same as the Company may agree with the said parties:

(b.) To carry on the business of manufacturing lumber, shingles and all log and timber products, and to erect, own, lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire and operate mills and factories for such purpose; to generate steam and electrical energy and all other kinds of heat, light and power from the combustion of saw-mill refuse, or any other material which may hereafter be known as suitable for such purpose, and to manufacture any and all kinds of products and by-products from wood, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, foreshore rights, water privileges, docks, wharves, piers, warehouses, and generally everything necessary for the equipment and operation of steamers, steam tugs and vessels:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, timber lands or timber limits held under lease or licences from the Crown or others, and whether operated or not, and to purchase or lease real estate or other property necessary for the purpose of carrying on a general lumber-mill business, and to sell or exchange such timber lands, leases, real estate or other property of the Company; to buy, own, sell, lease or exchange such real estate as may be deemed advantageous to the interests of the Company, and to carry on a general logging business, and to pay for the same either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in one and partly in the other, as the case may be deemed advisable:

(e.) To buy, own, sell, repair, build, charter and operate steamers, steam tugs, launches and vessels of all kinds, and to conduct, maintain, purchase, own, lease or otherwise acquire and operate wharves and piers for the purpose of shipping and transportation, and to receive goods as wharfingers, warehousemen and carriers:

(f.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liability of any person or Company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, and to pay for the same either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in one and partly in the other, as may be deemed advisable:

(h.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking or undertakings of the Company or any part thereof, or any part or parts of the property of the Company for cash, or for such other considerations as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to distribute the proceeds of such sale or sales amongst the members of the said Company, after payment of the indebtedness of the said Company, and to close out the said Company without taking out proceedings under the winding-up clauses of the Acts governing the same:

(i.) To invest in and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "S. Gintzburger, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 5th day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on at the City of Vancouver, British Columbia, under the name or style of S. Gintzburger, and all or any of the assets and liabilities of that business, and to pay therefor either in cash or fully paid up shares of the Company:

(b.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company upon such securities and in such manner and upon such terms as may from time to time be determined:

(c.) To carry on business as real estate, insurance, financial and commission agents and brokers, and as agents for loan and investment companies, and to invest money at interest on the security of freehold or leasehold land and other property:

(d.) To carry on business as capitalists, financiers, concessionaires and merchants, and to undertake and carry on and execute all kinds of financial and commercial, trading and other operations, and to carry on any other business other than that of a railway or insurance company, which may seem to be capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of these objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or facilitate the realising of, or to render profitable any of the Company's property or rights :

(e.) To advance, deposit, or lend money, securities or property to or with such persons, and on such terms as may seem expedient; to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, buy, sell, issue and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, bills of lading, debentures, bonds, warrants, coupons and other negotiable or transferable securities and instruments :

(f.) To guarantee or become liable for the payment of money for the performance of any obligation, and generally to transact all kinds of guarantee business :

(g.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, and to sell, exchange, surrender, lease, mortgage, charge, convert, turn to account, dispose of and deal with property, both real and personal, and rights of all kinds, and in particular mortgages, debentures, concessions, options, contracts, patents, annuities, licences, stocks, shares, bonds, policies, book debts, business concerns, and undertakings and claims, privileges and choses in action of all kinds :

(h.) To subscribe for conditionally or unconditionally; to underwrite, issue on commission or otherwise take, hold, deal in and convert stocks, shares and securities of all kinds and enter into partnership, or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concession, or any operation with any person, partnership or company, and to promote and aid in promoting, constitute, form or organise companies, syndicates or partnerships of all kinds, for the purpose of acquiring and undertaking any property and liabilities of this Company, or for advancing, directly or indirectly, the objects thereof, or for any other purpose which this Company may think expedient, and to lend money to, to guarantee contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company; to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and sell, hold, re-issue with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same :

(i.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights :

(j.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company :

(k.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and undertaking any of the liabilities of this Company, or of undertaking any business obligations which may appear likely to assist or benefit this Company, or to enhance the value of the business of this Company :

(l.) To negotiate loans and lend money on all kinds of securities, both real and personal, and on such terms as may seem expedient :

(m.) To act as agents for the investment, loan, payment, transmission and collection of money, and for the purchase, sale and improvement, development and management of property, including business concerns and undertakings, and generally to transact and undertake all kinds of trust and agency business :

(n.) To undertake and execute any trusts, the undertaking whereof may seem desirable, and for purchase or otherwise; also to receive moneys, securities and valuables on deposit or for safe custody :

(o.) To accept and execute the office of administrator, trustee, receiver, liquidator or assignee, or trustee for the benefit of creditors under any Act of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, and to accept the duty and act generally in the winding up of estates, partnerships and corporations :

(p.) To develop and turn to account any land required by the Company or in which it is interested, and to lay out land for building purposes, and to build on, improve, let on building leases, advance money to persons building on, and otherwise develop the same in such manner as may seem expedient to advance the Company's interests :

(q.) To give any guarantee in relation to mortgages, loans, investments and securities, whether made, or effected, or acquired through the Company's agency or otherwise, and generally to guarantee and become liable for the payment of money or the performance of any contracts and obligations, and to furnish and provide deposits and guarantee funds required in relation to any tender or application, or tender for contract, concession, property or privileges, or in relation to the carrying on of any contract or concession :

(r.) To carry on all kinds of promotion business, and in particular to form, constitute, float, lend money to, assist and control any companies, associations or undertakings whatsoever :

(s.) To borrow, or raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock :

(t.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company, possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which can be conveniently carried on, which this Company is authorised to carry on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company :

(u.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of this Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(v.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie :

(w.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as consideration any shares, stock or obligations or any of them, or of any other company :

(x.) To enter into any agreements with any Governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, or any companies, corporations or persons that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any Government, authority, corporation, company or person, any charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think desirable, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges or concessions :

(y.) To own and operate, lease, or otherwise engage in any business which the Company may take over from other corporations or persons, whether retail or wholesale, and to obtain a licence or licences therefor :

(z.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or the Legislature for enabling the Company to carry out any of its objects or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any purposes that may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests :

(aa.) To buy, sell and deal in coal, timber, live stock and generally in all kinds of merchandise, chattels and personal effects, and make advances and take security on same in such form as the Company may think fit :

(bb.) To buy, sell, manufacture and deal in minerals, plant, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions, and things capable of being used in connection with metallurgical operations, or any of the businesses of the Company, or required by workmen or others employed by the Company :

(cc.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, and otherwise acquire, operate and hold mineral lands, factories, buildings, furnaces for smelting and treating ore and refining metals, mining rights, rights-of-way, light or water, or any other rights or privileges, machinery, business, good-will, stock-in-trade, and to use steam, water or electricity for motive or for any other purpose :

(dd.) To act as the fiscal or transfer agent of any Province, municipality, or body politic, or corporation, and in such capacity to receive and disburse money, transfer, register and countersign certificates of stock, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness; to receive deposit of trust moneys, securities and other personal property from any person or corporation; to act as trustee under any mortgage or bond by any municipality, body politic or corporation, and accept and execute any other municipal or corporate trust, not inconsistent with the laws of this Province; to take and accept and execute any and all such legal trusts, duties and powers in regard to holding, managing and disposing of any estate or property, real or personal, and the rents, issues and profits thereof, and the sale thereof, as may be confided to it by any Court of record or by any person, corporation, municipality or other authority as agent, executor, administrator, guardian, receiver, trustee or otherwise where the same is not prohibited by the laws of this Province :

(ee.) To carry on business as timber merchants, lumbermen, loggers, saw-mill and shingle-mill proprietors, and to buy, sell, prepare for market or handle shingles, bolts, piles and wood of all kinds made, or partly made, of timber or wood, and to build, acquire, alienate and operate factories, saw-mills, shingle-mills and machinery of all kinds, and to acquire and use any process or processes in connection with the same :

(ff.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting in the placing or to guarantee the placing of any shares in the capital, or any debentures or other security of the Company or in or about the formation of the Company or the conduct of its business; such remuneration not to exceed more than five per cent. of the amount so received by the Company :

(gg.) To co-operate and join in with other persons, companies or firms, or to act for any other persons, companies or firms in the carrying out of the above objects :

No. 1,827.

“COMPANIES ACT, 1897.”

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the “Lyle MacGowan, Limited,” has this day been incorporated under the “Companies Act, 1897,” as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty thousand dollars, divided into two hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 19th day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To establish, engage in and carry on the business of buyers, sellers and dealers, both wholesale and retail, in and general traders of haberdashery, hats, gents' furnishings and clothing, and to engage in and carry on the business of tailoring, dyeing, cleaning, and manufacturers of haberdashery, hats, gents' furnishings and clothing, and generally to buy, sell, trade in, manufacture and deal in, both wholesale and retail, all such other goods, chattels, property and articles usually dealt with in such business and incidental thereto, in any part of the Province of British Columbia or the Dominion of Canada :

(b.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and to make advances in cash, goods or other supplies to other persons, companies or firms, and to take and hold real estate and personal securities for the same :

(c.) To construct, maintain and alter any buildings, warehouses, stores or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company :

(d.) To carry on the business of carriers by land or water, ship-owners, warehouse men, wharfingers, barge and scow owners, lightermen, stevedoring and shipping agents and such other business incidental thereto :

(e.) To charter, hire, build or otherwise acquire and maintain steamboats or other vessels and any description of railroads or tramways, and to operate and employ the same :

(f.) To use water, steam, electricity, or any power now or hereafter to become known as a motive power for the uses and purposes of the Company :

(g.) To subscribe for, purchase or sell shares, stocks or any securities whatever :

(h.) To lend or advance money :

(i.) To borrow or raise money for any purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purposes, to mortgage or charge the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments :

(j.) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire and to use grants, licences or rights in respect of or otherwise turn to account any patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade marks and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention or process which may seem capable of being used for or in connection with any of the purposes of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company :

(k.) To undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association or company possessed of property suitable for the business of this Company or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or which may seem to this Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as a consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company :

(l.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, protection of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any person or company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same :

(m.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of this Company for such consideration as this Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(n.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company :

(o.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any real or personal property or any interest therein, or any rights or privileges which the Company may think convenient for the purposes of this Company :

(p.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie :

(q.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company :

(r.) To procure this Company to be registered, licensed or recognised in any Province or territory of the Dominion of Canada or in any Province, country or place :

(s.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(t.) To modify or add to or extend the powers and objects of the Company contained herein should the same become necessary by the Company.

(u.) To add all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(18.) To let on lease or on hire the whole or any part of the real and personal property of the Company, on such terms as the Company shall determine:

(19.) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire any patent rights, licences, concessions and the like conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, transfer or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the rights or information so acquired:

(20.) To enter into any arrangement with any Provincial, Municipal, Civic or Local authorities that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority rights, privileges or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangement, rights, privileges and concessions:

(21.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognised in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere:

(22.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, securities under the Bank Act, bonds, debentures, mortgages, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities of every nature and kind whatsoever:

(23.) To borrow, raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures, debenture stock (perpetual or terminable), bonds, mortgages or any other securities founded, based or charged upon all or any of the property and rights of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or without any security, and upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the Company shall think fit:

(24.) To issue or guarantee the issue of, or the payment of interest on the shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds or other securities or obligations of any company or association, and to pay or provide for brokerage, commission and underwriting, in respect of any such issue:

(25.) To receive money on deposit, with or without allowance of interest thereon:

(26.) To advance and lend money upon such security as may be thought proper, or without taking any security therefor:

(27.) To invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(28.) To acquire by subscription, purchase or otherwise, and to accept and take, hold or sell, shares of stock in any company, society or undertaking, the objects of which shall either, in whole or in part, be similar to those of this Company, or such as may be likely to promote or advance the interests of this Company:

(29.) To establish agencies and branches in the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere, and to regulate and discontinue the same:

(30.) To provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company, or formerly engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows and families of such persons, by grants of money, pensions, insurance or other payments, and by providing or subscribing towards places of instruction and recreation, and hospitals, dispensaries, medical and other attendance, and other assistance, as the Company shall think fit, and to form, subscribe to or otherwise aid benevolent, religious, scientific, national or other institutions or objects, which shall have any moral or other claims to support or aid by the Company by reason of the locality of its operation or otherwise :

(31.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business, or for sharing of profits, or for amalgamation with any other company, or any partnership or person, carrying on business within the objects of this Company :

(32.) To establish, promote and otherwise assist any company or companies for the purpose of furthering any of the objects of this Company :

(33.) To pay the expenses of and preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment and registration of the Company :

(34.) Upon any issue of shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company, to employ brokers, commission agents and underwriters, and to provide for the remuneration of such persons for their services by payment in cash or by the issue of shares, debentures or other securities of the Company, or by the granting of options to take the same, or in any other manner allowed by law :

(35.) To sell, dispose of, or transfer the business, property, assets and undertakings of the Company, or any part thereof, for any consideration which the Company may see fit to accept.

(36.) To accept stock or shares in, or the bonds, mortgages, debentures, or other securities of any other company in payment or part payment for any services rendered or for any sale made to or debt owing from any such company :

(37.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, on such terms and in such manner as the regulations of the Company may from time to time provide, any shares in the Company's capital, subject to the provisions of the Companies' Ordinance, and any amendments thereto :

(38.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, bonds, debentures or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company :

(39.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorised, either alone or in conjunction with, or as factors, trustees or agents for, any other companies or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees or agents :

(40.) Generally to carry on any other business, whether organised or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company. And it is hereby declared that, in the interpretation of this clause, the meaning of any of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity, this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not to restrict the powers of the Company :

"Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer upon the Company any powers to which the jurisdiction of the Legislature of the Province of Alberta does not extend, and particularly shall not be deemed to confer the right to issue promissory notes in the nature of bank notes ; and all the powers in the said memorandum of association contained shall be exercisable, subject to the provisions of the laws in force in Alberta, and regulations made thereunder, in respect of the matter herein referred to, and especially with respect to the construction and operations of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, and any other business with respect to which special laws and regulations may now be or may hereafter be put in force."

NEW WESTMINSTER BY-LAWS.

LIQUOR LICENCE BY-LAW, 1889, AMENDMENT BY-LAW, 1907.

A By-Law to further amend the "Liquor Licence By-Law, 1889."

THE Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of New Westminster enacts as follows:—

(1.) Section 12 of the "Liquor Licence By-Law, 1889," is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

"12. No new licence for the sale of liquors shall be granted unless, in addition to the other requirements and provisions in that behalf required by law, a petition or requisition for the granting of such licence, signed by a majority of the qualified electors resident within the Division in which are situated the premises in respect of which the licence is sought, be delivered to the Clerk or Acting Clerk of the Corporation at the time of delivering to him the petition mentioned in Section 6 of this By-law, and he shall thereupon transmit the same to the Licensing Board, and the Board shall not be bound to grant such licence, if in the opinion of the majority of the Board then present the public interests justify a refusal, provided that the petition herein provided for shall not be necessary upon any application for a wholesale licence. For the purpose of this Section the City shall be divided into the following Divisions:—

"1st. All that portion of the City lying west of the middle of 12th Street.

"2nd. All that portion of the City lying between the middle of 12th Street and the middle of 8th Street.

"3rd. All that portion of the City lying between the middle of 8th Street and the middle of 4th Street, and a line being the north-easterly boundary of 4th Street produced to the Fraser River.

"4th. All that portion of the City lying between the Third Division and the north-easterly boundary of Queen's Park and a line being the said north-easterly boundary of said park, produced to the north-westerly boundary of the City, and to the Fraser River, also that certain parcel of land on the south side of said river included within the limits of the City.

"5th. All that portion of the City not included in the divisions hereinbefore described."

(2.) This By-law may be cited as the "Liquor Licence By-law, 1889, Amendment By-law, 1907."

Done and passed in open Council this 22nd day of July, 1907.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows.—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one news paper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10½ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Two hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By new Rule 65A, passed on the 2nd April, 1901 (see Journals, 1901, page 58), a model form of Railway Bill i adopted.

By 65B all Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

Dated 5th November, 1901.

THORNTON FELL,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
